29th Indian Paint Conference
11th to 13th January, 2019
Jaypee Palace Hotel & Convention Centre, Agra (U.P.)

Paint Pe Charcha
Naye Aayaam

Invitation Brochure
India, our beloved India, is so special in a variety of ways. It is home to a very large number of languages, still more dialects, many religions, many ethnic groups who are living, by and large peacefully together with mutual respect and in harmony. This makes India the largest working and fastest growing democracy in the world. India is on a war path on all round development of its people and infrastructure. With a large number of projects on the way and still more on the anvil, India is going to need large quantities of paint to protect its vast infrastructure. This brings paints including all sorts of coatings into lime light and we, the people associated with the paint industry can consider ourselves fortunate to be in this group. Whether we are manufacturer of paints and resins, raw material suppliers, pretreatment chemicals and thinner manufacturer, testing instruments manufacturers, finance companies, environment control advisors, equipment manufacturers, consultants in different fields - all can derive benefit from the collective wisdom of all at the 29th Indian Paint Conference. This will be the occasion for “Paint Pe Charcha” - in depth deliberations to find new dimensions — “Naye Aayaam” to review our plans for expansion and gains from the ongoing transformation in the national scenario.

The 29th Indian Paint Conference will provide a front seat view of happenings in the paint and associated industries. There will be presentations and lectures and group discussions on important topics in business and technical categories. Additionally the occasion provides an ideal opportunity for renewing old business friendships and forge new ones. A lot can be achieved in one to one side liners with access to high and mighty of the industry during breaks in the Conference. So do not hesitate to book your seat immediately even if it seems heavy on the pocket. Do take advantage of the early bird discount by booking early. If madam can accompany you to be in Agra, the city of love - so much the better. There will be a lot of activities for ladies other than visit to the Taj.

So our humble and warm invitation is extended to you and your family. We request to send us your Registration Request (hard copy enclosed) and payment by (cheque or digital) as soon as possible (remember first come first served, and don’t forget to bring woolens — Agra in January can be cold— down to 3 - 4 deg C.).

Looking forward to meet you at Agra
